Ventura County Animal Services to hold 11th Annual Adopt-A-Thon

(Camarillo, Calif.) – On Sunday, July 26th, from 11:00 am – 4:00 pm, Ventura County Animal Services will hold its 11th Annual Adopt-A-Thon, at the Camarillo Adoption Center, located at 600 Aviation Drive, in Camarillo. Attendees will be able to choose from more than 250 animals, which include dogs, cats, rabbits, reptiles, rodents and livestock.

There will be 25 adoption counselors on-hand to help decide which animal best compliments those seeking to adopt. There will be lots of fun for the entire family, including 4 food trucks, 2 ‘doggy playground’ presentations, as well as a K9 Search and Rescue presentation.

Adoption fees will be half-off all day. “This is the perfect opportunity for those who have been thinking about bringing a pet into their lives to do so,” says Tara Diller, Ventura County Animal Services Director. “People will have the support and information they need to make sure they’re matched with the perfect forever friend for them. And it’s half off!”

As they say: Finally...a family member you can choose!

About Ventura County Animal Services

Ventura County Animal Services (VCAS) is a division of the Ventura County Public Health Department; a department of the Ventura County Health Care Agency.

The mission of VCAS is to improve the lives of animals under their care, be timely and compassionate in response to customers, educate through community outreach and public awareness and provide for the health and safety of the citizens and animals of Ventura County.

VCAS rescues, impounds and treats stray, abandoned and sick animals, conducts license sales and rabies clinics, conducts nuisance animal investigations, provides euthanasia and disposal services and assists with animal evacuations during disasters. The agency’s Camarillo Shelter houses impounded, stray, abandoned, lost and homeless animals and provides veterinary care, housing and board while the animals await reclaim or adoption.
